

To be returned to school by Tuesday 8th October 2019

We have been learning to pay each other complements. A complement is saying something nice to someone about his or her appearance, learning or achievements for no reason other than to be kind! Please complete some complement slips for people at home and at school.

LI: to write a complement sentence I P G A	Assessment
	Pupil	Parent	Teacher
SC: talk about who you would like to pay a complement to mum dad brother sister aunty uncle cousin grandma grandpa friend neighbor teacher school adult
SC: write your complement sentence with a capital letter and a full stop
SC: read your complement aloud to who you have written it for

I am paying you a complement. I would to tell you that

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

To be returned to school by Tuesday 8th October 2019

We have been learning to pay each other complements. A complement is saying something nice to someone about his or her appearance, learning or achievements for no reason other than to be kind! Please complete some complement slips for people at home and at school.

LI: to write a complement letter I P G A	Assessment
	Pupil	Parent	Teacher
SC: pick a person you think is great! Think of 3 things they are great at mum dad brother sister aunty uncle cousin grandma grandpa friend neighbor teacher school adult
SC: extend your complement with how it makes you feel I like how you listen to me when I tell you about my game at school. It makes me feel happy and loved.
SC: Use joining phrases to connect your 3 paragraphs One thing you are great at is      Another reason I think      Even though As a result of your      When I feel .... You .....      Because of this
SC: read your complement letter aloud to who you have written it for

Dear _____

I am writing to tell you

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Lots of love, from _____

To be returned to school by Tuesday 8th October 2019

We have been learning to pay each other complements. A complement is saying something nice to someone about his or her appearance, learning or achievements for no reason other than to be kind! Please complete some complement slips for people at home and at school.

LI: to write a complement letter	Assessment
	Pupil	Parent	Teacher
I P G A SC: pick a person you think is great! Think of 3 things they are great at SC: extend your complement with how it makes you feel I like how you always ensure I have a positive start to my day. It makes me know I can face the day and do my best, it gives me confidence when you tell me how special I am in the morning.
SC: Use joining phrases to connect your 3 paragraphs One thing you are great at is      Another reason I think      Even though As a result of your      When I feel .... You .....      Because of this
SC: use a range of punctuation Commas to separate clauses, commas in a list, brackets to add detail, exclamation mark to show excitement or drama
SC: read your complement letter aloud to who you have written it for			