

Objectives:

- To learn about places of worship in different religions.
- To learn about significant people within different religions.
- To design a place of worship.

Did you know that Japanese origami began sometime after Buddhist monks carried paper to Japan during the 6th century? The first Japanese origami dates from this period and was used for religious ceremonial purposes only, due to the high price of paper.

This week we are focusing on RE and the different buildings of worship. Use the video links below to help you with this week's tasks:

Espresso – RE videos (a range so take your pick!)

Tasks:

1. Write a paragraph about who you idolise and a place that is special to you. This can be religious (for example, the Mosque and the Imam) but does not have to be! You can choose anyone you look up to and you see as a role model. (don't forget to explain why!)
2. Create a PowerPoint presentation about your special place (or places!) and person/people.
3. Design a place of worship that is inclusive (you can combine parts of each if you wish!).
